civil society post colonialism and transnational solidarity originates from louvet s observation of the strong commitment of a layer of irish civil society from the man on the street to political parties associations and trade unions to the defence of one antagonist or the other in the israeli palestinian conflict beginning with the six day war in 1967 and increasingly so after the lebanon wars at the start of the 1980s and the second intifada 2000 2005 this book observes how this phenomenon is particularly striking in northern ireland where israeli and palestinian flags have been flown by unionists and nationalists as signs of solidarity and identification louvet sheds light on the dynamics and strategies at play in the middle east conflict in northern ireland but also in the republic of ireland a country considered to be widely sympathetic to the palestinian cause with an overarching perspective highlighting the influence of irish colonial history over the motives and discourse of the different levels of mobilization in civil society this book shows the global movement towards the fragmentation and specialization of transnational solidarity actions in ireland in this book jay nordlinger gives a history of what the subtitle calls the most famous and controversial prize in the world the nobel peace prize like the other nobel prizes began in 1901 so we have a neat sweeping history of the 20th century and about a decade beyond the nobel prize involves a first world war a second world war a cold war a terror war and more it contends with many of the key issues of modern times and of life itself it also presents a parade of interesting people more than a hundred laureates not a dullard in the bunch some of these laureates have been historic statesmen such as roosevelt teddy and mandela some have been heroes or saints such as martin luther king and mother teresa some belong in other categories where would you place arafat controversies also swirl around the awards to kissinger gorbachev gore and obama to name just a handful probably no figure in this book is more interesting than a non laureate alfred nobel the swedish scientist and entrepreneur who started the prizes the book also addresses missing laureates people who did not win the peace prize but might have or should have gandhi peace they say is enlightening and enriching and sometimes even fun it has its opinions but it also provides what is necessary for readers to form their own opinions what is peace anyway all these people who have been crowned champions of peace and the world s foremost should they have been such is this book provides a critical analysis of brexit placing it in the broader context of the historical development of the british constitution and earlier disputes as to the meaning of statehood sovereignty and territorial boundaries some of the greatest challenges posed by the uk s withdrawal from the eu are those it places on the british constitution which is already unsettled and under strain this book investigates this impact but also uniquely locates brexit in the broader context of historically significant british acts of union or disunion such as the loss of former us colonies and british empire and the place of scotland and ireland in the union these precedents help us understand how a british constitutional identity has been shaped or dismantled by legal concepts of union or sovereignty
